NO CREATOR—NO GOSPEL!

Observant Christians know only too well how the American culture is being increasingly bombarded with ungodly, anti-Bible, anti-Christian, anti-Creation, and evolutionary humanistic influences. In schools, colleges, and universities across this land, the idea of the non-existence of a Creator is either strongly implied or blatantly proclaimed in a multitude of ways. The Judea-Christian foundation of this nation is rapidly eroding under this onslaught.

For many years I have believed that the time would come when the population of America would be polarized as a culture. On one side would be the secular ungodly, and on the other side the true follower of Jesus Christ. I believe we are seeing this situation materialize before our very eyes today.

Satan, the enemy of God and of all Christians, has been diabolically clever in bringing influences to bear in America that has brought us to this present situation. So what should we Christians do in response? Should we throw up our hands in despair with a fatalistic attitude? Does God have a plan of action for His people in days such as these? Absolutely!

James 4:7—8, says, “Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. Draw near to God and He will draw near to you.”

First Peter 3:15 says, “But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear.”

With God’s help, and as we truly submit to Him, we can see the enemy flee in the face of a creation museum/ministry that will witness to the reality of a Creator who made all things. Victories will be gained over Satan as young and old are exposed to truth that will fortify them against all attacks. Creation Museum of the Ozarks will provide answers that will show the foolishness and unsupported falsehoods of those who claim there is no Creator. We know better!

Pray with us for God to provide the great miracles needed to raise up this museum as a witness to the millions who visit Branson, MO every year.

WHERE DOES INFORMATION COME FROM?

by Rod Butterworth

Does the computer I am typing this article on contain information? Yes, more than I'll ever know about or use. How did this information become embedded in my laptop? Most of it was programmed in by software creators and designers, and just a minuscule amount of information created by me—such as letters, articles, manuscripts and address lists, etc. So as far as information in my computer is concerned, it all originated from the thinking processes of real peoples' brains--in other words, the activity of human minds.

Why is this important to consider? It's important because in recent years (since the 1950s) a remarkable discovery has been made in the field of biology. This discovery has revealed the amazing fact that the cells in our bodies and all living organisms contain coded information that literally organizes and produces the end product of all people, plants and animals on this earth.

We know this code as DNA, the amazing structure in cells that organizes in very specific ways at the cellular level such things as transportation, disposal of waste products, communication, defense, and much more. In fact, we now know that the living cell is so incredibly complex in its engineering that it is technologically advanced to the extreme over anything produced by humans.

What does this tell us as Christians today? It is a marvelous indication of the absolute necessity for a highly superior mind to have designed and produced such unbelievable complexity, and to do so at so small a scale that the unaided human eye cannot see it. In other words, a Creator God is the best and most logical explanation.

The idea of evolution by “lucky” advantageous mutations over millions of years as an evolutionary scientist has suggested, just doesn't fit for many reasons. In his new book, Signature in the Cell, Dr.

Stephen Meyer writes, “Either life arose as the result of purely undirected processes, or a guiding intelligence played a role”.¹

The discovery of the marvels in DNA is making it appear more and more ridiculous and illogical to believe that this incredible storehouse of coded information spontaneously evolved piece by piece through lucky undirected chance. It should be obvious to those who are willing to let the evidence lead them to the truth that a “guiding intelligence” is the only logical explanation for the marvelous workings of DNA in cells that enables life to exist and continue on earth.

So it comes down to this: 1. Either lifeless matter (whose source is unknown) evolved by lucky chance into DNA coded intelligent life by an unknown scientific mechanism through billions and millions of years, or, 2. “In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth” and gave life to all living organisms. This Creator made humans in His own image as the zenith of His creation, and desires a close relationship with us.

Let's be encouraged as Christians who believe in the biblical Creator. After all, the evidence really is in our favor.
